Germany's Imprudence.

Washington, 6.—It', is stated that the cabinat considered, without reaching any conclusion, the demand of the German government has instructed its consults to actify German subjects. Itable to military duty, to repert. Among those notified are German residents in this country who have not been naturalized, and sons of such Germans, who have not reached their majority and consequently cannot yet elect their nationality. These Germans de not know what te do and have been writing to the state department for information. The department replied that it had heard nothing from our minister at Berlin in regard to the demand for military service, but as soon as it gets any information it would give the Germans in this country the benefit of it. The German government wishes to abrogate the Bancroft treaty on the ground that it is too favorable to America. Germans demand the abrogation of the treaty on the ground that it is not favorable enough to them. Half a dozen Germany and held or military service. Now Germany goes a step further and insists that Germans residing in this country, but retaining their German citizenship shall go home and render military service. These persons, it is evident, cannot be taken back to Germanyby violence, but if they should decline this official invitation to the Fatherland, it would be injudicious for them to return home on any subsequent occasion. This government has ne in terest in merely canabling foreigners te escape the burdens of citizenship in their own country merely to get naturalized, and then return home to enjoy all the advantages of two nationalities and bearing the burdens of citizenship in their own country merely to get naturalized, and then return home to enjoy all the advantages of two nationalities and bearing the burdens of citizenship in their own country merely to get naturalized, and then return home to enjoy all the advantages of two nationalities and bearing the burdens of seither. The Jeatousy of Players.

Syracuse, 6.—Barrett, having refused to take part in the Cincinnati dramatic festival with Keene, the latter's manager, Hayden, was interviewed. He said Barrett's course showed his tempar to the public. He says he met Mr. Miles, manager of the Cincinnati festival, in New York last August, Miles asked if Keene would play. Hayden said they would make any sacrifice to help the good work, and they then discursed the parts for McCallough. Miss Anderson, Barratt and Keene. Hayden cancelled many engagements to make this plan possible and since Miles has written that Barrett refuses under any consideration to play with Keene, and that the board after discussing the matter had decided to take Barrett, instead of Keene. He didn't give Barrett's objections, but Haythinks Barrett objects to appear with Keene in the same cast because he thinks he would be clovating Keene to a position. He looks upon Barrett as a man with narrow, egotistical, selfish and quarreleone disposition. A dispatch from Unicinati says the manager device that he over made a contract with Mr. Hayden, and also with Mr. Hayden, and also with Mr. Keene," s.ys Mr. Miles, according to the dispatch, in reference to what plays could be done, provided suitable arrangements could be made. This was before any arrangements had been made with many one to appear, and while Barcett was in Europe. Barrett's exact Syracuse, 6 .- Barrett, having refused beto, any arrangements had been made with any one to appear, and while Barrett was in Europe. Barrett's exact words in a letter, which thow have are if You may be sure I will not play if Keene is included in the affair, and you know how McCullough feels about the matter.' This was brought before the committee, and they considered Mr. Barrett as the more capable artist, and he was selected.

Mr. Hayden said he had nothing more to say and withdraw.

St. Psul, 5.—The campaign of Lander in the senatorial contest took a new turn last night. A package of affidavits was received from Colorado, relating the recent attacks on Senator Windom for western mining transactions, etc. One affidavit by William Wolfe, of Durango, Colerado, shows that he was approached at the instance, it was a seried, of George Wilkinson, of Winona, with a proposition to blackmail Windom out of $19,600 to $20,000.

M. J. McClosky, Windam's agent is Durango County, testified that Windom's property there is only about $9,600 instead of the fabulous amounts claimed; and Robert Dickey, superintundent of the Tempest mine, testified that Wilkinson told him be was going te make it hot for Windom and bust him for senator if it cost $10,000. Will Contest.

New York, 8.—There was another hearing yesterday in Westchester surrogate court in the contest over the will of the late Adelaide Cutler. The property disposed of by the will is valued at $250,000. The real estate, worth $10,000, together with one-half of the personal estate is bequeathed to Mrs. Helen Adelaide Pultz of New York; the other half of the personal estate to W. S. Browne, of San Francisco; also a cousin of the testatrix. The will is contested by the husband of the deceased and by members of another branch of the family on the the ground of incompetency and undue influence.

A Hatching Market.

Milwaukee, 6-Congressman Deuster will use his influence to have a govern-ment fish hatchery located here. It is estimated that 100,600,000 white fish, 50,-000,000 lake trout, and 28,000 600 wall-eyed trout can be hatched annually at the exposition building.

High License.

Chicago, 6—The local saloon keeper's association have appointed a committee of five to work against the present agitation for an increase of saloon licenses. The Oitizen's League are confident the law will be passed making $500 the lowest license fee for any saloon in the state.
